ORDER

Upon consideration of the trust account report and the consent to collection of fees, it is ORDERED that, because appellant has insufficient funds in his trust account, appellant will not be assessed an initial filing fee. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(1).

Pursuant to appellant's consent to collection of fees, appellant's custodian is directed to collect and pay from appellant's trust account monthly installments of 20 per cent of the previous month's income credited to appellant's account, until the full $255 docketing fee has been paid. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(2). Such payments must be made each month the amount in the account exceeds $10. The payment must be by check or money order made payable to Clerk, U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia and must be designated as made in payment of the filing fee for Case No. 05-7097, an appeal from Civil Action No. 05cv1015. A copy of this order must accompany each remittance. In the event appellant is transferred to another institution, the balance due must be collected and paid to the Clerk by the custodian at appellant's next institution. Appellant's custodian must notify the Clerk, U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit and the Clerk, U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia, in the event appellant is released from custody.

The Clerk is directed to send a copy of this order to appellant, by whatever means necessary to ensure receipt, and to the Clerk, U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia. The Clerk is further directed to send to appellant's custodian a copy of this order and appellant's consent to collection of fees.
